GENERAL INFORMATION

Should the door to the field to which you feel called is closed for any reason, are you willing to look to the Lord to direct you elsewhere? State carefully your conviction on this point.

Effective service on the mission field involves the complete putting aside of personal plans and ambitions. It requires a life that is absolutely yielded to God and to His Will. Missionary service may mean danger, suffering, sorrow, sickness, periods of loneliness and exposure to temptation. Missionary service demands the ability to cooperate sympathetically with others, and above all, it is based on a real energizing love for the souls of the lost. To what extent do you believe that you qualify? Discuss briefly.

DECLARED POSITION:

On Ecclesiastical Separation:

The cause of fundamental Christian missions the world over is confronted with unprecedented peril. The liberal and apostate World Council of Churches and the International Missionary Council has united organically. This brings the entire field of missionary work under their control and operation. It is also a fact that many of the national Christian councils of the world are members of the International Missionary Council and therefore an organic part of the World Council of Churches.

Therefore, the General Headquarters of Roma Outreach Missions Association, Inc., has resolved, "we declare ourselves opposed to affiliation with any of these national Christian councils. We consider the command of Scripture to be explicit in requiring complete separation from any alliance which would make us a part of such councils."

Are you willing to accept such a position and defend it? Yes: _____ No: _____

On Personal Separation:

Believing that salvation involves the believer in separation unto Christ and from the world, (Romans 12:1-2; I John 2:15-16), we deem it proper and profitable to enunciate the following Scriptural principles that govern the believer's life and establish a standard for holiness:

1. The prohibition of all that is harmful to the body, (such as the use of tobacco and the non-medicinal use of narcotics and alcoholic beverages.) I Corinthians 6:19.
2. The prohibition of immodesty, (which may be expressed by dress, decorum or the excessive use of cosmetics.) I Timothy 2:9.
3. The prohibition of improper language, (such as profanity, gossip, obscenity, etc.) James 1:26.

4. The prohibition of everything that is detrimental to positive Christian influence. Romans 14:13; I Corinthians 10:31-32.
5. The prohibition of everything that is not Christ-like. Romans 8:29.
6. The prohibition of questionable amusements and associations that damage spiritual growth and inhibit personal sanctification. 2 Corinthians 6:14.

I am in agreement with these principles and provide my signature below as a testimony of my agreement:

THE ARTICLES OF FAITH OF Roma Outreach Missions Association, INC.

The Word of God

We believe the Bible is the divinely inspired Word of God in its entirety, written by men as they were moved by the Holy Spirit and that it is the sole authority for the Christian's faith and conduct. We believe that the King James Version of the Bible, (KJV), is the preserved Word of God for the English-speaking people of the world. (Psalm 12:6-7; 2 Peter 1:20-21)

The Godhead

We believe in one God, eternally existing in three persons: The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We believe that they are equal in every divine perfection, and executing distinct but harmonious offices in the great work of redemption. (Genesis 1:26; Matthew 3:16-17)

God the Son

We believe that Jesus Christ was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of Mary, a virgin, in order that He might reveal God and redeem sinful men; that He is both the Son of God and God, the Son. (Isaiah 7:14; Luke 1:26-28; 2 Corinthians 5:21)

God the Holy Spirit

We believe that the Holy Spirit is a divine person, equal with God the Father and God the Son, and of the same nature. It is He who convicts of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. He is the Restrainer of the Evil One until God's purpose is fulfilled. He bears witness to the truth of the Gospel and is the Agent in the new birth, baptizing all true believers into the body of Christ. (John 14:7; 1 Corinthians 12:12-13)

Man

We believe that man was created in the image and after the likeness of God, but by voluntary transgression fell from his sinless and happy estate. The consequences of which, all mankind are now sinners not by constraint, but by choice, and therefore, under the just condemnation of God, without excuse or defense. (Genesis 1:26, 3:6; Romans 5:12)

Atonement

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures as a representative and substitutionary sacrifice, and that all who believe in Him are justified on the grounds of His shed blood. (1 Corinthians 15:3-4)

Salvation

We believe that the salvation of sinners is wholly of grace through faith and that Jesus Christ is the only way of salvation. We believe that the blessings of salvation are made free by the Gospel, that nothing prevents the salvation of the greatest sinner but his own inherent depravity and voluntary rejection of the Gospel. (Ephesians 2:8-9)

Security

We believe that those who receive Jesus Christ as Saviour are eternally secure. Our security rests in the finished work of Jesus Christ, and that all the redeemed are kept by God's power and are thus secure in Christ forever. (John 3:16; I John 5:12)

Christ's Resurrection

We believe in the resurrection of the crucified body of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His ascension into Heaven and in His present life there as High Priest and advocate. (Acts 1:9; 1 Corinthians 15:3-4)

Second Coming

We believe in "that blessed hope" – the personal, premillennial, pretribulational and imminent return of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, when the church will be "gathered together unto him." (1 Thessalonians 4:13-16; 1 Corinthians 15:50-52)

Bodily Resurrection

We believe in the bodily resurrection of the just and the unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved and the everlasting punishment of the lost. (1 Corinthians 15:50-52)

Scriptural Ordinances

We believe that the Scriptural ordinances of the church are Baptism by immersion and the Lord's Supper, and are to be administered to believers only as a symbol of their belief in the death, burial, and resurrection of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ; and as a testimony to the world of that belief and of their death, burial and resurrection with Him; and that the Lord's Supper should be partaken of by believers only to show forth His death, "till He come." (1 Corinthians 11:23-26)

The Church

We believe that the visible church is a congregation of baptized believers, practicing the New Testament principles, believing its doctrines, observing its ordinances and exercising its autonomy. We believe that it is the responsibility of the local church to propagate the Gospel to the world. Every church and Christian should have a part in this ministry. (Acts 2:41-47)

Present trends in Doctrine and Practice

We take a stand against any trends in doctrine and practice which lead to discrediting the Bible and undermining the fundamentals of the faith.

- A. Neo-orthodoxy – This theological persuasion is a result of a futile attempt to reconcile “the higher scientific Biblical Criticism” with the true Biblical interpretation. Such an appeal to Biblical revelation is based upon half-truths and as such is false and deceptive. We utterly reject this method and position.
- B. Neo-evangelicalism – This movement, while claiming to be fundamental in theology, has actually compromised the underlying principles of the Christian Faith. It questions inspiration, literal interpretation, accepts liberals as Christians, takes a new attitude toward the ecumenical movement, promotes ecumenical evangelism, denies both ethical and ecclesiastical separation, restructures eschatology, and over stresses the social aspects of the Gospel. We hold this position to be unscriptural.
- C. Ecumenical Movement – The attempt to unite the different faiths today on the basis of the least common denominator of doctrine is a betrayal of the true unity of believers based upon sound doctrine of the historical Christian faith. Its dialogue with other religions is dialectic. Its method of operation is subversive and shows a tendency of totalitarianism. Scripture does not support its concept of an ecclesiastical kingdom. We reject all cooperation with this movement.
- D. The Tongues Movement – We believe that the gift of tongues was given as a sign to Israel and like the gifts of Apostleship and prophecy, which were for the founding of the church, (Ephesians 2:20; 1 Corinthians 14:21,22), and is therefore not being given today. While we recognize that God may give any gift to the Church at any time, we believe that the current resurgence of the practice of the tongues that is not Scripturally regulated and which is usually divisive is not the Scriptural gift of tongues. We, therefore, urge that members of the Mission base their experiences on the written Word of God, seek to use the more important gifts (1Corinthians 12:28), and cultivate Christ-likeness, (Galatians 5:22-23), none of which requires the use of genuine or spurious tongues. ROMA will not accept, or tolerate, a staff member or missionary who practices or encourages the practice of speaking in tongues.

The information contained in this formal application has been prepared and submitted prayerfully. I am in complete agreement with the Articles of Faith and gladly affix my signature as a testimony of my agreement.
